tames of his nomination for the office of Govern of Kentucky, but a highly respectable contleme who left the vicinity of Lancaster night before la says that be himself heard Mr. B. declare his de-termination to accept. We have confidently expec-ted this intelligence, and, while it will carry pain and dismay to the hearts of the Democracy, it will lill with courses and enthusiasm the ranks of the Never in all our lives have we known any mat partizan fimes, more generally and unequivocar indicated for any office by public sentiment that Bell has been and is for the office of Governo ithout a serious sacrifice of his own interests, w relieve there was not a man in the nominating Correction that was not in favor of him. He was non nated by acclamation, and so he would have been f the mominating body had been the whole mass of the Opposition party in the State. All who know have the most unbounded confidence in his talsition party, that put him there, must go to work with their whole strength and elect him.

After inducing him to accept a position which be ither sought nor desired, but which he has taken to let him be defeated through any supine ness or naglact of the opponents of the Democracy No such shame will be permitted to rest upon th lant old Whige and Americans of Kentucky.

of the White House. But all subsequent accounts recaived by mail show that he was guilty of the vari-ous absurdatics reported. The words which passed through that window of the White House will prov the life of that mi-erabla despot. For the first time is our history we find a President desecrating the Executive mancion by vulgar partisan boasting, and Mr. Buchauan when he asks for thirty million:? He knows the island cannot be purchased by a vote of the Spanish Cortez, or the consent of the people of Cuba, and he designs a system of bribery which Ha proposes to attempt indirectly what he ca money will ned not; be has told us so in his hypocriti rdid slaves who will exchange their birth-rig the mess of pottage, traiters who weigh their slity in the scale against gold, and always allow the dross to kick the beam. Mr. Buchanan knows republic in that attitude which will draw upon it the contempt of the civilized world. He is the moral oward" who dares not do right, when faction and so inextricably in complications as he now is; be could not have been deserted by all his former sends, and now stand the very counterpart of the Scotch tyrant, when, in the bitterness of his heart,

For Mr. Buchanan to brand@be opponents of to equisition of Cubs as "cowards," is to make the of the Democratic party. He affixes it to the Washington States, to the Richmond Lequirer, to nearly the entire press of Louisiana, and to all who can Mr. Buchanas to call those "cowards" who ouon Foreign Relations, Senstor Hunter, chairman, and a majority of its Committee on Finance; Sena ter Jeff Davis, chairman, and a majority of its rred, and without whose sunction it can neither negotiated for, bought nor stolen. It includes too the Treasury. It generally inculpates those who forced Mr. Buchanan into his Lecompton policy and supported the English bill, but who could not conand another for Oregon. We do not doubt it brings within its scope the chivalric Kentuckian, who has rone to Madrid as the representative of the United States, and who, if we are not mistaken in the man, early that he will mover press it before the cabi-t of her most Catholic Mujesty Luubella.

It is left for the representative of the Oma-must platform to propose the crowning diagram of Democratic policy, and assert buildly reading the unmanly language of the President from the White House window, it is the omisons ence of his pensioned press and his obsequious fol-wers on the subject. An insult offered to Congrees and not a member of that body to denounce fit A sweeping denunciation made against all who will not sympathise with the aggressive spirit of the administration, including nearly thirty Southern gortlamen, "that hold their honors la a wary on," and not a voice raised to hurl th ard" back and cram it down the throat of the libelor!
